

Troy E. Simpson

tsimpson@kolter.com

Troy is a financial analyst with The Kolter Group, a private investment firm focused on real estate development, investment, and construction across multiple asset classes and geographies. Mr. Simpson began his career as a consultant for WilsonMiller Stantec, a multinational engineering and planning firm, where he supported an extensive client portfolio, focused primarily on securing entitlements for large scale mixed-use development.

Mr. Simpson is a member of the Urban Land Institute, currently serving on the Tampa Bay District Council's Young Leaders steering committee and the 2012 ULI Florida State Conference planning committee. Additionally, he is a member of the Tampa Bay region of the University of Florida's Friends and Alumni of Real Estate, currently serving as the Regional Chairman.

Mr. Simpson holds a Bachelor degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida where he also attended graduate school and received Master's degrees in both Real Estate (with honors) and Urban and Regional Planning (with honors). He was inducted into Omicron Delta Kappa National Leadership Society and Beta Gamma Sigma International Honor Society.